

Please do not raise or eliminate existing limits on ownership of broadcast facilities. Experience with Clear Channel shows how a single business can limit or control the information available to the public. For an extreme example consider the Arabic broadcasts in the middle east - all biased against the U.S. and misinformed.